“Hoppy” Thursday!

We made it through week one. How is everyone doing? I hope you are enjoying the daily newsletter. I absolutely recognize that many families do not have internet or limited phone data, so I have tried my best to make this as easy as possible for you to access at home by creating the daily newsletter. If you have any feedback, I'd love to hear it. I just want to make this a good experience for you and your child.

I really like using photos that I get from you in my daily newsletter. It helps for your child to see others so they can feel some connection. Once I send the daily newsletter out to you in the morning, I then upload it to my blog (kjhaidner.edublogs.org). That means it is now on the internet. I realize that there may be some families who do not wish for their son or daughter's photo to go on the internet. If you wouldn't mind sending me an email, letting me know if it is ok, or not ok to post a photo on the newsletter and then onto my blog, I'd really appreciate it. My master list is locked in the classroom at school and I want to make sure I don't post a picture you wouldn't want me to post. I will make a master copy here at home and cross reference your wishes.

Tomorrow is Good Friday and Monday is Easter Monday. This is a reminder that there will be no daily newsletter from me to you on these two days. My wish for you and your family is to enjoy the long weekend, spending time with your family at home as we continue to physically isolate ourselves.

Happy Easter Families! Stay safe and healthy.

Mrs. Haidner

International Day of Pink

Yesterday was International Day of Pink day. I made sure I put on my pink shirt to show that I will not let others be bullied! Gerome and Pierre were very excited to join me for the photo. They wanted to show you that they don't like bullying and that they will always look out for others.

If you can, describe in a sentence or two what you can do to help others who have been bullied or are being bullied. Please draw a picture to go along with your writing. I'd like to share some of your writing and illustrations in next week's daily newsletter.

And The Hen Names Are....

First I am going to say, you are all amazing grade 2 students! Pete, Abby and I have absolutely loved all your possible names. We would have like to pick all your names that you created. Maybe next year we will have to buy 20 hens!

At 4:00 pm, we put all the names in a bowl and we each selected 2 names. Doing this made me think about repeated addition....  $2 + 2 + 2 = 6$ . Isn't it cool how learning math can be seen in real life situations!

The Hen Names Are.... In alphabetical order!

1. Chickeletta
2. Cluck
3. Nugget
4. Pamela
5. Penny
6. Waffles

Next week we will have new adventures with the hens.

Chickens, Chickens, Chickens – Math Word Problem of the Day!

Each day, the hens lay one egg each. Mrs. Haidner collected eggs on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and today. How many eggs do the Haidner's have so far? Remember, there are 6 hens. Be sure to use pictures, numbers and words to solve your problem. I gave you an organizer to help. I look forward to seeing your thinking and your written responses.

Mrs. Haidner collected _____ eggs in total so far this week.

Maya – Repeated Addition

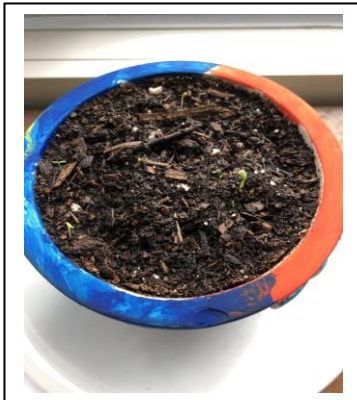

Parker – There are 48 hen toes!

Parents, I would like to use photos on my daily newsletter. However, I also link my newsletter to the class blog. If you are not ok with me posting photos on the newsletter or on my blog, can you send me a quick email. Thanks, Mrs. Haidner

Summer's Chickens and addition!

Joke of the Day:

What is Easter Bunny's favorite kind of music?

Hip-hop!

Class Pen Pals:

I received an email from Regan and one from Taylor this week. They both told me the same thing! Guess what they are doing? They are sending letters to each other. Instead of mailing their letters, they attach it to the other persons 911 numbers at the end of their driveway. What an awesome job Regan and Taylor. Keep up the writing girls.

Do you know how to draw the Easter bunny?

If you can open the link below, there are step by step directions on how to draw an Easter bunny. Have fun.

I can't wait to see some of you bunnies!

Pete, Abby, Calla, Holly, Chicketta, Cluck, Nugget, Pamela, Penny, Waffles and I wish you an amazing Easter. Have an amazing weekend friends!

From,

Mrs. Haidner
