Chargers...Ms. Cook kissed the pig! We weren't able to do this at an assembly this year but we've got pictures! Congratulations on surpassing your goal for the Terry Fox Foundation! Thank you Chargers!

Good morning grade 2's!

Look what happened this weekend! Last September, the school set a goal to raise $2000.00 for the Terry Fox Foundation. Ms. Cook said that if we met our goal, she would kiss a pig. Well, in good New Lowell fashion, we surpassed our goal and... the rest is history. The problem was we couldn't find a pig for Ms. Cook to kiss. This weekend a piglet was found and here are the photos.

Thank you Ms. Cook for being such a great leader. The piglet is pretty cute. I imagine that Wilbur likely looked like this piggy when he was little too.

Have a great day everyone!

STEM Building Challenge – Marble Maze

CAN YOU MAKE A MARBLE MAZE?

Can you build a marble maze using lego, straws, popsicle sticks or other recycled materials? Design the maze, create obstacles, get your marble through the maze! Draw a picture of the materials you used and your plan. Explain how you made your maze work.

Science Task

Can animals get a sunburn?

Watch this video Can animals get a sunburn?

- Can animals get a sunburn? Why do you think that?
- What did this lesson make you curious about? What other questions do you have?

Tech free activity: Suppose you don't have any sunscreen. How can you protect yourself from the Sun? What ideas do you have? Think about all the different ways that animals protect themselves from the sun. Do these give you any ideas of how to prevent a sunburn? Describe or draw a picture of your ideas.

Have a “Mighty Monday” everyone!
